

Idaho Refundable Parental Choice Tax Credit Program

PRIVATE SCHOOL TUITION AID FOR IDAHO STUDENTS!

What is the Parental Choice Tax Credit Program?

The Idaho Parental Choice Tax Credit is a refundable tax credit that provides families with funds for eligible students to help cover private school tuition and other qualified educational expenses. Families with students who have disabilities requiring support may receive additional funds for their students' private education.

What is the scholarship amount?

- Up to $5,000 per eligible student
- Up to $7,500 per student with disabilities requiring additional support

What can an Education Freedom Scholarship be used for?

- ✓ Private school tuition & fees (K-12)
- ✓ Tutoring
- ✓ College admission tests & prep courses
- ✓ Advanced Placement (AP) & certification exams
- ✓ Textbooks & curriculum for academic instruction
- ✓ Transportation costs for travel to/from an educational facility

Who qualifies?

- Full-time residents of Idaho
- Between the ages of 5 to 18 (or 5 to 21 for students with disabilities requiring additional services).
- Enrolled in a nonpublic school, receiving academic instruction at a microschool or learning lab, tutoring or other approved educational services that does not involve public schools.

When does the application period open?

The first application period for the 2025 tax year opens on January 15, 2026, and will close on March 16, 2026 (or earlier if funds are exhausted).

 SIGN UP TODAY TO GET NOTIFIED AND RECEIVE KEY DETAILS WHEN THE APPLICATION PERIOD OPENS!

LEARN MORE

SCHOOLCHOICETOOLKITS.COM